Invitation to Observe the 2017 Palestinian Local Council Elections

On behalf of the Palestinian Central Elections Commission (CEC), we would like to invite you to observe the Local Council Elections which will take place on 13 May 2017. The CEC is committed to openness and encourages the participation of diplomatic missions and international organizations as observers or guests in the upcoming elections.

You are welcome to send observers for all the electoral activities, beginning with voter registration and ending with the announcement of results. The following are the currently scheduled dates of the primary phases of the electoral process:

Registration, Exhibition and Challenge:	March 4th –8th
Candidate Nomination:	March 28th – April 6th
Electoral Campaigning:	April 29th –May 11th
Polling Day:	May 13th

Accreditation of international observers/guests commences on March 2nd until May 11th. If you are interested, please find the application forms and procedures on our website, <https://www.elections.ps>

The following must be submitted to the CEC, either electronically or in person:

- Application for Accreditation of International Observers
- Contact Person Authorization Form
- Declaration and Pledge form for each international observer.

If you would prefer to observe the elections as a guest, please submit the Guest Accreditation

Application form to the CEC, also available on the website. If you require any further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the international observers section by emailing observers@elections.ps
